

City seeks public input for new city manager

Residents and stakeholders are invited to a candidate forum beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday, March 20. Finalists are Deric Feacher, Caryn Gardner-Young, Thomas J. Hutka, Terrence R. Moore and Terry K. Suggs.

The forum will be at the city's Midtown Cultural & Educational Center located at 925 George W. Engram Blvd. For those who are unable to attend in person, plans are being made for the forum to be broadcast on www.codb.us/DBTV and Spectrum Channel 490.

Citizens are asked to register in advance to assist with planning efforts; however, registration is not required. Citizens can submit questions for finalists in advance. To register and submit questions, visit www.codb.us/CityManagerSearch or call (386) 671-8018. To help prevent the spread of COVID-19, chairs will be physically distanced and attendees are asked to wear face coverings when inside the building. For more information and to review the finalists' resumes, visit www.codb.us/CityManagerSearch.

Bike Week is set for March 5-14

The 80th anniversary of Bike Week will be March 5-14 with plans in place to help prevent the spread of COVID-19. Outside vendors will be permitted, and a few businesses, including some on Main Street, will have to limit capacity to 60% to help promote social distancing. For more information, visit www.officialbikeweek.com.

Overall crime down in 2020

According to a recently released preliminary report from the police department, overall crime in the city continues to trend down. Most notably, auto thefts, burglaries, larcenies and robberies saw significant decreases in 2020. For report highlights, visit www.dbpd.us.

On the police department's website, residents can also:

- File a police report for a non-emergency incident
- View a map to see reported crime
- Sign up to receive email alerts when crime is reported

City Commission meets regularly

Tune in Wednesdays to Daytona Beach Radio

Stay up-to-date by tuning in to the city's weekly radio program, Daytona Beach Radio. This one-hour show airs from noon to 1 p.m. each Wednesday on JOY 106.3 FM. During the program, listeners can call (386) 516-8030 and ask questions about the day's topic. Daytona Beach Radio is also live streamed on the city's Facebook page @DBCityNews.

Help keep storm drains clear

Storm drains allow water to flow into our area lakes and rivers. Residents can help keep storm drains clear by bagging yard clippings or allow the clippings to accumulate in the yard. When grass clippings blow into the streets, they can ultimately end up in a storm drain, cause localized flooding and carry pollutants into our waterways.
