

New city manager starts June 1

Deric Feacher was selected as Daytona Beach's next city manager. Feacher, a graduate of Bethune-Cookman University, has 20 years of senior level experience working in local government. He was chosen after a national recruitment and selection process, which involved feedback from community members. For more information about the new city manager, the selection process, and videos of Feacher talking to the public at the March 20 candidate forum, visit www.codb.us/CityManagerSearch.

Norma J. Bland field naming ceremony June 12

A ceremony to honor Norma Bland is planned for 4:30 p.m. Saturday, June 12 at the new multipurpose field at Derbyshire Sport Complex, 849 Derbyshire Road. The public is invited to attend. Born and raised in Daytona Beach with a passion for social activism, Norma was a beloved, well-known fixture in the community. She passed away last year due to COVID-19.

COVID-19 vaccines become more available

Residents are encouraged to visit www.coronavirus.gov to learn about the available vaccines and to help them make an informed decision about getting vaccinated. Help keep our waterways clean

Do your part...only let rain go down the drain! Letting pollutants such as animal waste, pesticides, fertilizers, oil and grease, and trash go down the drain and into stormwater systems is illegal and can harm area waterways. For more conservation tips, visit www.codb.us and click on "Utilities" under "Departments."
