

On The Move With Leisure Services

Youth basketball league games underway at Midtown and YSG

Over 100 kids will lace-up their shoes this winter as the cities youth basketball league started its season this week with games being played at both Midtown Cultural and Educational Center and Yvonne Scarlett-Golden Community Center. The season runs through Feb. 12 for ages 6 to 17. Players will focus on learning fundamentals, teamwork and sportsmanship.

The Jr. league for youth ages 4 to 5 will start playing games on Dec. 18 at the cities recreation centers. For more information, call (386) 589-2858.

Registration is now open for holiday camp

The city is hosting a youth winter holiday camp at Schnebly Recreation Center. The camp is from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday from Dec. 20-31. Kids must be registered in the afterschool program to be eligible to attend. The camp fee is $64. Don't miss out on the holiday fun! To register, visit codb.us/activities or call (386) 671-8250.

Thank you Leisure Services

The 2021 Bright Lights and Merry Nights Christmas Parade was a huge success thanks to the Leisure Services department. Leisure Services was responsible for staffing, facilitating and routing floats for the parade, and a total of 7 vehicles were utilized throughout the night to make sure everything flowed smoothly.

This years float theme was Unwrap the Benefits of Leisure Services, due to all that they do for the city. Sheila Priester and Susan Bashans are responsible for creating this years eye-catching float.

Thank you to the 30 Leisure Services staff, including Leisure Services Director Keith Willis and Recreation Director Vincent Terry for making this years Christmas Parade a night to remember.

Weight room now open at Dickerson

Exciting news! The Dickerson Center's weight room is officially back open for residents after improvements to the facility were made, including a new TV, blinds and painted walls. Guests can access the weight room from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Tennis center hosts winter classes

The Florida Tennis Center, located at 1 Duce Ct. #200 and the John Hudson Tennis Academy are offering classes from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Dec 27-31st. Classes will focus on fundamentals and sportsmanship. The instructor to student ratio is 6 to 1, so participants can get the one on one attention they need. The registration fee is $150 for the week or $40 per day. Participants are ask to provide their own water. To register, call (386) 671-8901 or email Okarskik@codb.us

Daytona Beach Gymnastics

Christmas Parade

Daytona Beach Gymnastics participated in both The Port Orange and Daytona Beach Christmas Parade this month. These stars showcased their stunts, flips and joy to spectators at both parades. A total of 30 gymnasts ages 18 months to 13 years old tumbled down Port Orange and Daytona Beach.

Holiday Camps

Registration is open for Daytona Beach Gymnastics' Holiday Camps! The first camp begins Monday Dec. 20, and ends Wednesday, Dec. 22. A second camp will be offered Dec. 28-30. Camps are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily and for youth ages 5 to 14. Enjoy fun, fitness, group games and more! To register, call (386) 671-3561.

Register for Winter session now

Roll your way into the new year by registering for the Daytona Beach gymnastics winter session Jan. 5th through Apr. 1st. This session offers multi-level classes for preschool to teens. For more information call (386) 671-3561 or visit www.codb.us/DBGymnastics.

