City brings summer camp to local neighborhood

We're bringing camp to kids this year! Youth ages 5 to 15 can enjoy summer camp activities from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday, June 15, at the Daytona Gardens Apartments at 437 Jean St.

Activities include:

- Music
- Arts and crafts
- Basketball lessons
- Food and drinks

Dive deep into the city's Little Free Libraries program this summer

The city's Little Free Libraries program is a great way for kids to keep their brains active this summer. The concept is fun and easy—bring a book, take a book. Read it and return it or read it and cherish it. To donate a book, call (386) 671-5830.

Little Free Libraries locations

- John H. Dickerson Community Center
308 S. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
- Yvonne Scarlett-Golden Cultural and Educational Center
1000 Vine St.
- Midtown Cultural and Educational Center
925 George W. Engram Blvd.

Basketball heats up at Dickerson Center

Get your swish on at the Dickerson 3-on-3 basketball tournament at 6 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday. This co-ed tournament is open for ages 12 and older and will run through June 30 with playoffs beginning July 5. Registration is open at the Dickerson Center at 308 S. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. Winners of the tournament will each receive a $10 gift card from Wawa and the championship trophy.

For more information, call (386) 671-3427.

Get to know: Lenox Playground

Located on beachside at 825 S. Grandview Ave., Lenox Playground is a multi-purpose park that offers something for everyone, even our four-legged friends.

Residents can enjoy the following amenities from sunrise to sunset:

- Basketball
- Dog park
- Shaded playground
- Walking path
- Pavilion with tables

Steve Cook named Florida Tennis Center manager

For the first time in 20 years, the Florida Tennis Center is under new leadership with the hire of Steve Cook, who has over 10 years of experience managing tennis centers. Before moving to the sunshine state, he coached at the collegiate level at Converse College and managed the country's largest indoor and outdoor tennis center (Greater Midland Tennis Center). Excited to grow memberships, Cook wants to add more junior and adult programs to the tennis center.

Florida Tennis Center is at 1 Deuce Court, and has 24 clay courts, a full-service pro shop and more. For more information, visit www.daytonatenniscenter.com.
