

On The Move With Parks & Rec

May 17, 2023

Youth showcase skills at gymnastics exhibition

Youth athletes put their skills on display at the 24th Daytona Beach Gymnastics Exhibition Friday, May 12, at the Schnebly Recreation Center. Some of the skills that these talented gymnasts showcased included tumbling, balance beam performances and bar routines. The Spring B gymnastics session is underway with classes starting this week and running through June 23. Sessions are held at the Schnebly Recreation Center at 1101 N. Atlantic Ave.

For more information or to register, call (386) 671-3561 or visit www.CODB.us/Activities.

Stay in-the-know with city programs when visiting community centers

When visiting one of the city's community centers, check out the information boards that display the latest news and programs. From swim lessons to the Parks & Recreation newsletter, summer camps and job openings, there are many programs offered through the city's Parks & Recreation department at a center near you!

Visit www.CODB.us/RecreationCenters for center locations. To register for an activity, visit www.CODB.us/Activities.

Score a touchdown at the free Bruce McNorton Football Camp

Registration is open for the Bruce McNorton Football Camp, which is hosted by former NFL star Bruce McNorton. This free camp is 5 to 7:30 p.m. Friday, June 9, at Daytona Stadium, 3917 LPGA Blvd.

Several former and current football players will provide instruction during the clinic. The youth camp aims to teach and improve football technique, teamwork and sportsmanship skills for youth ages six through high school.

To register, visit www.CODB.us/Activities. For more information, call (386) 453-0317. Onsite registration will be accepted the day of the camp.

Baby & Me Swim Program makes a splash at Cypress Aquatic Center

With summer right around the corner, now is the perfect time to register for the Baby & Me Swim Program offered for youth ages six months to three-years old. Sessions started last week and swimmers had a blast learning basic swim techniques in a fun environment. The program is offered from 11 to 11:45 a.m. every Saturday at the Cypress Aquatic Center at 981 George W. Engram Blvd. Sessions are $30 month. Financial scholarships are available for qualifying youth.

The Baby & Me Swim Program is sponsored in part by AdventHealth, Humana and Kiwanis International.

Senior Oasis meetings take summer break

The city's Senior Oasis group meetings will take a break at all community centers from June to August. Senior Oasis meetings will resume in September at the following locations: Cherry Cultural & Educational Center, Dickerson Community Center, Schnebly Recreation Center, Sunnyland Recreation Center and Yvonne Scarlett-Golden Cultural & Educational Center.

For more information, call (386) 671-8250.

Registration open for adult computer classes

Beginning in June, residents can take free adult computer classes at the Cherry Community Center, 925 George W. Engram Blvd., or YSG Community Center, 1000 Vine St. The classes will start June 5 and continue through Aug. 30. Level 1 classes are 6 to 6:50 p.m. and Level 2 classes are 7 to 7:50 p.m. For more information or to reserve your seat, call (386) 671-8266.

