New swim league offered for youth ages 7 to 15

Dive into a new competitive youth swim league at Cypress Aquatic Center, 981 George W. Engram Blvd. This city-sponsored, free swim league is offered for youth ages 7 to 15. Tryouts are 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 26, and participants must be able to swim the length of the pool with a front and back stroke. As part of the swim league, athletes will compete in time trials and intersquad competitions. Prizes and refreshments will be provided at tryouts. For more information, call (386) 671-8392.

Additional sponsors include Advent Health, Humana and The Vitamin Shoppe.

Summer campers receive goodie bags from Daytona Beach Gymnastics

Thank you to Port Orange Family Chiropractic Center for donating hair ties, icepacks and band-aids to youth at the city's summer camp program.

Angie Gowell, with Daytona Beach Gymnastics, compiled the items into goodie bags and delivered them with Parks & Recreation Director Keith Willis to summer camp locations throughout the city.

City offers programs for residents of all ages to enjoy

With more than 30 Parks & Rec programs offered throughout Daytona Beach, there is something for everyone to enjoy during their leisure time. From Game Night to Kung-fu and weekly Senior Oasis meetings, residents can find many programs to participate in at the city's five community centers.

Visit www.CODB.us/CommunityCenters for schedules of activities at the community centers. Residents can also call (386) 671-3400 for more information.

Volunteer needed for city's after-school program as a tutor

The city's after-school program is seeking volunteers to help elementary-aged students improve their math and reading skills. The after-school program is 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Schnebly Recreation Center, 1101 N. Atlantic Ave.

For more information or to volunteer, call (386) 671-8266.

Kids get treated to school clothes

Just in time for the start of the school year, 176 kids from the city's summer camp program were able to buy back-to-school outfits thanks to Daytona Beach Kiwanis and JC Penney. Families enjoyed complimentary refreshments during the shopping spree event Sunday where each camper received $60 (in-kind) and additional discounts and contributions from JC Penney, which amounted to more than $120 in value. Thank you to everyone involved for making a difference in our community.
