Schnebly's Lisa Gall wins gold at Special Olympics

Congratulations to our very own Lisa Gall for winning the gold medal and scoring the highest rank on her bowling team in their Special Olympics state competition this month. Lisa works at the Schnebly Recreation Center. Way to represent Daytona Beach!

Daytona Stadium renovations

Renovations to the home of Bethune-Cookman University, Mainland and Seabreeze High School football teams are nearly finished.

Completed upgrades include weatherproofing of the entire stadium, new seating on the home side and enhanced locker rooms. A new camera roof deck is expected to be installed in the near future.

Daytona Beach Gymnastics

The Daytona Beach Gymnastics fall session has started. Young athletes can learn essential gymnastics skills including proper technique and teamwork in a fun and energetic environment. This session is open to all youth, from preschoolers to teens. The fall session runs through Dec. 15. Classes are at Schnebly Recreation Center, 1101 N. Atlantic Ave.
