

On The Move With Parks & Rec

Dec. 20, 2023

Jingle All the Waves Christmas Parade makes splash downtown

More than 60 entries featuring bands, festive floats and performances by community organizations participated in this year's Jingle All the Waves Christmas Parade on Beach Street. Presented by Brown & Brown Insurance, the parade lit up downtown with fun for all ages. A firework show concluded the night and this year's parade featured the 2023 State Champions Mainland High School Football team, who served as the Grand Marshals. Congratulations to this year's parade winners:

- Best Float: Luznar Family
- Best Walking Unit: Royal Elite
- Best Automobile: Coast2Coast Slingshots

Best Automobile: Coast2Coast Slingshots

Best Float: Luznar

Best Walking Unit: Royal Elite

Registration open for 2024 Mayor's Fitness Challenge

The Mayor's Fitness Challenge will take place from Tuesday, Jan. 9, through Saturday, March 16. The first session is at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 9, at the Julia T. and Charles W. Cherry Sr. Cultural & Educational Center, 925 George W. Engram Blvd., and will feature a weigh-in and further information regarding the 10-week program. Registration is only $20 per participant. Classes will be at 5:30 p.m. every Tuesday and 8:30 a.m. every Saturday during the program. To participate in the Mayor's Fitness Challenge, visit www.CODB.us

Daytona Beach Gymnastics offers holiday camp for youth

Registration is still open for Daytona Beach Gymnastics Holiday Camp, which is offered from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Dec. 27 through 29 for youth ages 5 to 12. Enjoy fun, fitness, group games, movie time and more! Participants need to wear basic gymnastics apparel with stomach area covered, hair pulled back and no jewelry. Campers can bring a water bottle, hair ties, lunch, a towel, flip-flops, healthy snacks and hand sanitizer. The Holiday Camp is at the Schneibly Recreation Center, 1101 N. Atlantic Ave. To register, call (386) 671-3566 or visit www.CODB.us.

Daytona Beach GYMNASTICS Holiday Camp

Children's Christmas Party knocks it out of the park at the Jack

Children got in the Christmas spirit at the Children's Christmas Party at the Jackie Robinson Ballpark. Guests were encouraged to bring nonperishable food items for a community collection and free books were distributed. Sponsored by Zone 6 Commissioner Paula R. Reed and the Daytona Tortugas, youth enjoyed:

- Photos with Santa
- Face Painting
- Line Dancing
- Running the Bases
- Music
- Games
- Refreshments
- Movie Screening of the holiday classic, "Elf"

