

On the Move With Parks & Rec

April 17, 2024

Mayor's Golf Tournament open for registration and sponsors

Calling all golfers to take a swing at our annual Mayor's Golf Tournament Friday, May 10 at the Daytona Beach Golf Club. Registration begins 7:30 a.m. and a shotgun start at 8:30 a.m. Spaces are filling up fast, but there's still time to register or become a sponsor. Mayor Derrick L. Henry is dedicating this year's proceeds to Mr. & Ms. Mentoring and the city's Parks & Recreation summer camp program to provide scholarships to participants. For more information, call John Cameron at (386) 671-5831.

Daytona Beach Gymnastics sticks the landing at AAU competition

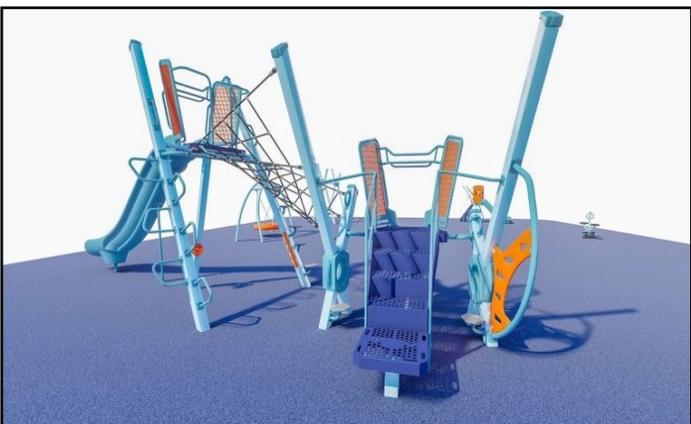

Congratulations to Daytona Beach Gymnastics on another successful AAU competition! Ranging from Level 2 through Xcel Gold, 15 youth athletes took home 29 event medals and four all-around champion medals.

The next competition for Daytona Beach Gymnastics AAU is April 20 and 21 in Perry, Florida.

Register for the city's popular summer camp

Summer Camp registration is open for youth ages 5 to 16 at four of the city's community centers. Beginning June 3, the nine-week camp will be from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The cost per child is a one-time fee of $270 or $35 a week. Financial scholarships are available for qualifying youth. To register for summer camp, visit www.CODB.us/Activities. For more information, visit www.CODB.us/SummerCamp.

SUMMER CAMP
7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
June 3 through Aug. 2 world famous DAYTONA BEACH

New playground equipment coming to Sunnyland Park

New playground equipment, designed for youth ages 2 to 12, is expected to be installed at Sunnyland Park by the end of this month. There will be a wood fiber surface underneath the playground equipment. New ADA-compliant sidewalks will be created around the play features as well for better connectivity throughout the park. The playground is expected to reopen by the beginning of June.

We want to hear from you

The public can share their input at our Parks & Recreation Master Plan public meetings, which begin Tuesday, June 11 at 6 p.m. at the Peninsula Club, 415 S. Peninsula Drive. This is a great opportunity to share your ideas and thoughts about our network of parks and recreational programming. If you can't attend June 11, we will have two more meetings on the following dates:

- Thursday, June 13 at 6 p.m., Dickerson Community Center, 308 S. dr. Martin King Jr. Blvd.
- Saturday, June 22 at 10 a.m., Cherry Cultural & Educational Center, 925 George W. Engram Blvd.

Employee Spotlight: Terry Johnson

Terry Johnson has served the City of Daytona Beach for nearly 30 years. Responsible for overseeing and organizing youth leagues and programs, Johnson was recently promoted from Aquatics Supervisor to Athletics Supervisor.

The city offers a variety of youth leagues including flag football, basketball, baseball, cheerleading and swim programs.

Visit a park: Suburbia Park

Located at 700 Heineman St., Suburbia Park is nestled in the heart of Daytona Beach. This charming community spot has something for everyone including a newly resurfaced playground, picnic tables, basketball court, pavilion and restrooms. Gather your friends and family for a day of outdoor fun at this hidden gem.

Suburbia Park is open everyday from sunrise to sunset.

New mural to discover at Daisy Stocking Park

A new mural can be found at Daisy Stocking Park! Created by artist Tiff Urquhart, the mural incorporates important facts about Daisy Hardy Stocking's life. Urquhart's other vibrant murals can be seen at Dickerson Recreation Complex, Joe Harris Park and underneath the Daytona Beach Pier.

www.CODB.us/ParksAndRec

