

On the Move With Parks & Rec

June 19, 2024

Daytona Beach Gymnastics summer camp registration open

Daytona Beach Gymnastics is hosting a summer specialty camp from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. June 24-27 at the Schnebly Recreation Center, 1101 N. Atlantic Ave. Offered to boys and girls ages 5 to 12, this camp includes fitness games, gymnastics, crafts, movie time and fun provided by gymnastics coaching staff. The camp fee is $149. For more information, call (386) 671-3566 or (386) 671-8250.

To register for the camp, visit www.CODB.us/Activities.

Employee Spotlight: Margie Manley

Margie Manley has served in the Parks & Recreation department since 2004 and as a rec leader since 2013. Her duties include supervising and scheduling at the Yvonne Scarlett-Golden Cultural & Educational Center and working special events and concessions at Daytona Stadium.

Manley strives to maintain a friendly working environment for staff as well as patrons.

Parks & Recreation Master Plan public meetings

Last week, the city hosted two Parks & Recreation Master Plan public input meetings at the Peninsula Club and Dickerson Community Center. There will be one more meeting at 10 a.m. Saturday, June 22 at the Cherry Cultural & Educational Center, 925 George W. Engram Blvd. This is the opportunity to share your ideas about what you would like to see in the master plan to help enhance city parks, community centers and programs. If you can't attend one of the meetings, take the resident survey by visiting www.CODBParksPlan.com.

Adult Co-Ed Kickball League open for registration

Grab your friends and form a team to participate in the Adult Co-Ed Kickball League. This fun summer league is from June 30 through Aug. 14, and the registration fee is $250 per team. Games will be played on Sundays at Derbyshire Sports Complex, 849 Derbyshire Road.

Register online at www.CODB.us/Activities. Registration closes Friday, June 28.

Summer Fun on the Run coming to local neighborhoods

Summer Fun on the Run, an initiative to keep kids active and bring recreation programs into neighborhoods is back! Youth can enjoy summer camp activities from 4 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 26 at Daytona Gardens, 437 Jean St. Activities include music, arts and crafts, food and drinks. No registration is needed. For more information, call (386) 671-5821. Other locations include:

- Dickerson Community Center 4 to 7 p.m. July 10
- Lakeside Village 4 to 7 p.m. July 17
- Daisy Stocking Park 4 to 7 p.m. July 24

YSG Cultural & Educational Center upgrades

Parking availability more than doubled with the creation of 40 new spaces, plus two ADA spaces, in YSG Cultural & Educational Center's parking lot. Construction of the parking spaces, curbing and striping was done by city crews.

Concrete parking wheel stops will be added in the near future, but visitors to the popular community center can still use the new parking spaces.

Visit a park: Breakers Oceanfront Park

Explore Breakers Oceanfront Park, 13 S. Atlantic Ave. This park offers a one-of-a-kind view to guests with the world-famous Daytona Beach in the background. Visitors can enjoy a splash pad, walk paths, sand volleyball courts, restrooms and an environmental learning center. The park is open from dusk to dawn seven days a week. For more information about our parks, visit www.CODB.us/Parks.

Bruce McNorton Football Camp scores a touchdown in Daytona Beach

The 2024 Bruce McNorton Football camp was filled with hard work and fun this past Friday. Youth ages 6 to 18 participated in a variety of skills and drills with former NFL player and scout Bruce McNorton.

This free camp was hosted in the heart of Daytona Beach at Derbyshire Sports Complex.

www.CODB.us/ParksAndRec

