

On the Move With Parks & Rec

July 3, 2024

Daytona Beach Gymnastics wraps up AAU Season

Congratulations to Daytona Beach Gymnastics for placing first through third several times at the AAU National Championships last month. This wraps up the 2023-24 AAU season. If interested in joining Daytona Beach Gymnastics, visit www.CODB.us/Gymnastics or call (386) 671-3566.

Gymnastics classes run year-round in 12-week sessions. Specialty camps, classes and other events are offered at various times of the year.

Swing into summer with tennis lessons

The Derbyshire Community Tennis Inc. is offering free youth tennis lessons at Derbyshire Sports Complex, 849 Derbyshire Road for youth 6-18. The lessons are from 5:30 to 6:45 p.m. every Tuesday through Aug. 13. To register or become a volunteer, email letsmovederbyshire@gmail.com or call (305) 497-2794. On-site registration will be available Tuesday, July 9.

The free tennis lessons are sponsored by USTA Florida.

Summer Fun on the Run makes first Neighborhood stop

Youth enjoyed a day full of activities at the first Summer Fun on the Run location last week. Organized by the city's Parks & Recreation department, Summer Fun on the Run will make stops at multiple locations throughout the summer.

The next free minicamp will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, July 10 at the Dickerson Recreation Complex, 308 S. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

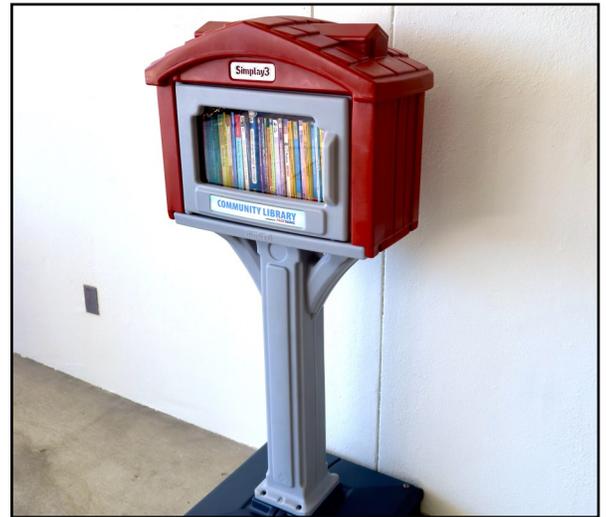

New playground at Sunnyland Park open to the public

Sunnyland Park, 825 Washington St. has new playground equipment open to the public. The new equipment includes a swing set, three slides and three play structures. More upgrades are coming in the near future. Once the city's summer camp ends, the basketball court will be resurfaced. A new shade structure and press box will be installed at the softball field by the start of BCU's softball season this spring.

New Little Library at City Hall

A new Little Free Library was installed at the east entrance of City Hall. The concept behind the Little Library program is bring a book, take a book. Young readers can visit Little Free Libraries at:

- City Hall, 301 S. Ridgewood Ave.
- Dickerson Community Center, 308 S. Dr. MLK Jr. Blvd.
- Schnebly Recreation Center 1101 N. Atlantic Ave.
- YSG Cultural & Educational Center 1000 Vine St.
- Cherry Cultural & Educational Center, 925 George W. Engram Blvd.

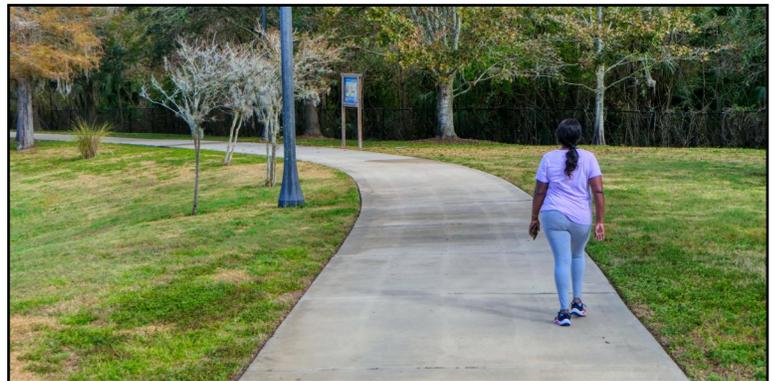

Swim lessons offered throughout the summer

Swim Lessons are ongoing at the Cypress Aquatic Center, 981 George W. Engram Blvd. Youth ages four and older can learn how to swim Monday through Thursday from 4 to 6 p.m. Baby & Me swim lessons are available for babies from six months to three years old from 11 to 11:45 a.m. Saturdays. The fee for swim lessons are $30, and financial scholarships are available. Thank you to our swim sponsors The Vitamin Shoppe and Humana. To register, visit www.CODB.us/Activities.

Visit a park: Samuel Butts Youth Archeological Park

Samuel Butts Youth Archeological Park is named after Daytona Beach resident Samuel Butts, who collected prehistoric bones of humans and animals at the site for 20 years. Stroll on the park's walking trail or enjoy fishing from the pier. Other amenities include parking, restrooms, a pavilion and a historic site.

For more information about our parks, visit www.CODB.us/Parks.

Cedar Highlands Park enhancements underway

Landscaping is underway at Cedar Highlands Park, 1601 Attucks Court. Enhancements include irrigation improvements and beautification of the park by adding almost 200 new plants and mulch.

While under construction, visitors can enjoy the park from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week.

www.CODB.us/ParksAndRec

