

YOUTH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Last month, the Bethune-Cookman University Women's basketball team and the Daytona State College Men's basketball team stopped at the youth basketball clinics. With clinics now finished, the city's youth basketball league will begin with drafts starting Monday, Nov. 11. For more information about the youth basketball league, visit www.DaytonaBeach.gov/YouthBasketball.

NEW SIGNAGE AT CITY PARKS

To continue enhancing city parks, new park signs have been installed at Henry Lee Park, Sunnyland Park, Suburbia Park, and Oleander Park. This month, the Cherry Cultural & Educational Center will receive new signage, including a digital sign promoting the center's programs and city events.

BLACK BEARS PRESENTATION

Attendees of the Florida Black Bear presentation at Breakers Environmental Learning Center learned about black bears, including their diet, anatomy and lifestyle. Amy Orlando from the Florida Fish & Wildlife Commission hosted the presentation. At the end of the presentation, youth enjoyed arts and crafts.

TRUNK OR TREAT

Trunk-or-treaters had a spooktacular time at the City Island Park, 113 Jackie Robinson Parkway. Hosted by City Commissioners Stacy Cantu, Dannette Henry, and Ken Strickland, this fun-filled event featured creatively decorated vehicles, free games, face painting and a costume parade.

LENOX PARK UPGRADES

Upgrades to the Lenox Park dog park are wrapping up and are expected to be open to the public in the coming weeks. A new shade structure with a bench and concrete padding has been placed over both the small and large dog parks. Once new fencing is installed, the dog park will be reopened to the public.
