

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Ingrid Laas is celebrating 10 years with the Parks & Recreation department. While in college, she started out as a casual worker at Daytona Stadium, Peabody Auditorium and Oceanfront Bandshell. Laas became the Food & Beverage Assistant in 2017 and is currently managing the food and beverage needs at Daytona Stadium and the city's special events. She aims to share her knowledge with others who have a passion for hospitality while representing the City of Daytona Beach.

FLORIDA TENNIS CENTER HOLIDAY SOCIAL

The Florida Tennis Center is hosting a holiday social Saturday, Dec. 14, from 9 a.m. to noon. They will offer honey-baked spiral hams and beverages. There will be an organized round-robin, festive music and a white elephant gift swap.

The cost is $20 for members and $30 for non-members.

To sign up, visit the pro shop at the Florida Tennis Center, 1 Deuce Court.

BETHUNE POINT PARK PLAYGROUND

New playground, designed for youth 5 to 12, has been installed at Bethune Point Park. Other enhancements include new curbing, a seat wall and a sidewalk, which are expected to be completed this week. A new rubber surface under the playground will put the finishing touches on the new upgrades.

FIND OUR ELF, CONTEST!

Follow clues on our social media to find Elfie hidden in different locations each week. Once you spot her, take a clear photo (no need for you to be in it!) and submit for a chance to win exciting prizes. Don't miss your chance to participate—Elfie could be hiding near you!
