

HENRY LEE PARK AND SUBURBIA PARK REOPEN BASKETBALL COURTS

Get ready to dribble, drive and drop dimes! Enjoy the city's two freshly resurfaced outdoor basketball courts in these neighborhood parks. Residents can enjoy playing basketball from sunrise to sunset seven days a week. Other parks with newly surfaced courts are Schnebly Recreation Center and Sunnyland Park.

MIDTOWN MUSIC CONCERT RETURNS TO DAISY STOCKING PARK

Get ready to dance the night away under the stars at the Midtown Music Concert Series from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25 at Daisy Stocking Park, 555 Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune Blvd. Enjoy a performance by Amy Alysia & the Soul Operation. Food and drink vendors will be on site. Attendees can bring their own lawn chairs and blankets, but no coolers.

For more information, visit www.DaytonaBeach.gov/MidtownMusic.

READING PAWS VISIT CITY'S AFTER-SCHOOL PROGRAM

Schnebly Recreation Center's after-school program hosted a Reading Paws event where children read to a trained therapy dog. The event was filled with laughter, learning and wagging tails as students built confidence in their reading skills with the help of a furry friend. Reading Paws will return for the city's summer camp.

RIGHT WHALES PRESENTATION

The Breakers Environmental Learning Center hosted a free Right Whales presentation by the Blue World Research Institute. Attendees learned facts about these endangered whales, including the current population, low birth rates and how we can help save this species from going extinct.
