ON THE MOVE WITH PARKS & RECREATION

TICKETS AVAILABLE UNTIL FRIDAY!

Get ready to dance the night away at Daytona Nights, on Friday, Dec. 5, from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Cherry Cultural & Educational Center, 925 George W. Engram Blvd. Open to Daytona Beach residents 60 and older, the event will feature live music, photos, food and drinks. Tickets are available for free and can be picked up at City Hall, 301 S. Ridgewood Ave. The event is hosted by Zone 2 City Commissioner Ken Strickland, Zone 3 City Commissioner Quanita May and Zone 6 City Commissioner Paula R. Reed, in partnership with the Daytona Beach chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi and the Beta Delta Lambda chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.

Thank you to our sponsor, Family Health Source.

CYPRESS AQUATIC CENTER UPGRADES

The Cypress Aquatic Center is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Saturday, following a brief maintenance closure. Located at 981 George Engram Blvd., at the southeast corner of Nova Road and George Engram Boulevard, the center received a fresh coat of paint on its pool features to create a vibrant, welcoming environment. Additional updates are in the works and will be announced when confirmed.

Please note the pool will be closed for Thanksgiving on Thursday, Nov. 27, and Friday, Nov. 28. We look forward to seeing you in the water!
